This course is a (2) day course with (2) distinctly different classes. Day (1) is all about the principals of Entry Level room clearing and day (2) is all about the principals of low light engagements. Each course can be taken separately or both courses together.

Day (1) Entry Level Room Clearing

Day (2) Low Light Engagement & Tactical Shooting

With the high cost of ammunition in today's training market coupled with the benefits of using Simunition FX marking cartridges makes this class invaluable and inexpensive for all students.

This extremely realistic training provides students with the critical skills that are needed in life threatening situations encountered while performing job/mission for Police, Military or Security personnel as well as the armed citizen.
